REMARKS.

This collection of important Paintings and rare Engraved Portraits, Etchings, Engravings and Color Prints are all from private sources—mainly from the Estate of the late Dr. Isaac Hull Platt of Philadelphia and Mr. J. B. Temple of Tanquy, Pennsylvania. Of course, it is not necessary for me to say that they will all be sold, absolutely, without any reservations whatever.

Of the Paintings which compose the second session of the Sale, I have not attempted to enlarge on their description, coming as they do from private sources without any information whatever concerning them, I have catalogued them as they are named, embracing as they do many important examples of the most noted Artists, it would be quite superfluous for me to attempt any guarantee; and in these days there being so many Doubting-Thomases, I prefer to ask my patrons to personally inspect them. Mr. Temple informs me that his portion of the Sale was gathered by him during the last twenty-five years, and that he never would purchase a painting unless he had reason to believe it was by the Artists who signed it. I make this assertion both in justice to Mr. Temple and in a spirit of frankness to my patrons, and I shall be pleased to accept the opinions of my friends whether they be for or against my assumption.

As to the Engravings, I am on absolutely sure ground, and you can rely on my descriptions, for I know what I am asserting. In this Collection there is a fine opportunity for any Collector to add to or improve his portfolio, and for those interested in Engraved Portraits there is a rare chance to obtain many that are seldom offered for sale, particularly in the state these are in, and the connoisseur in Etchings will revel in the large number of works by the great masters of the needle, that are herein described.

I have made plates of some few of the most noted of both the Paintings and Engravings to try and convey an idea of the importance of the whole Collection.

STAN. V. HENKELS.

This is a very brilliant impression, in bright colors, of this rare portrait. A portion of the inscription "Late President of the United States of America," and the address and dedication of the publisher, have been cut off. It was published in 1798.
